

What Am I Missing Here?

Thought-Provoking Questions for the Clinical Research Industry

By Norman M. Goldfarb

238. One last thing...

Many organizations conduct an exit interview when an employee leaves. It's a good opportunity to learn about issues and demonstrate a sincere interest in the employee's questions, thoughts, concerns and suggestions. Why not conduct "exit interviews" with investigators, study coordinators, and study participants at the end of a study? We might learn something. What am I missing here?
